PART V: MEDICAL DISPUTE RESOLUTION REVIEW SUMMARY, METHODOLOGY, AND/OR EXPLANATION

This dispute relates to inpatient services provided in hospital setting with reimbursement subject to the provisions of Rule 134.401 (Acute Care Inpatient Hospital Fee Guideline). The hospital has requested additional reimbursement according to the stop-loss method contained in that rule. Rule 134.401(c)(6) establishes that the stop-loss method is to be used for "unusually costly services." The explanation that follows this paragraph indicates that in order to determine if "unusually costly services" were provided, the admission must not only exceed $40,000 in total audited charges, but also involve "unusually extensive services."

After reviewing the information provided by both parties, it does not appear that this particular admission involved "unusually extensive services." The requestor did not submit an operative report indicating if the services were unusually extensive. Accordingly, the stop-loss method does not apply and the reimbursement is to be based on the per diem plus carve-out methodology described in the same rule.

The carrier made reimbursement for the 8-day stay in the amount of $19,376.60.

The requestor billed $23,887.00 for the implantables.

The requestor submitted invoices indicating the cost for the implantables were $14,566.00.

Therefore, reimbursement based on per diem is $3,354.00(3 x $1,118.00) and reimbursement for the implantables at cost plus ten percent is $16,022.60 ($14,566.00 x 110%). Per diem for the 3-day stay is $3,354.00 + $16,022.60 for the implantables = $19,376.60 total reimbursement recommended. The carrier reimbursed the provider $19,376.60 for the 3-day stay and the implantables, leaving no additional reimbursement recommended.

Therefore, based on the facts of this situation, the parties' positions, and the application of the provisions of Rule 134.401(c), we find that the health care provider is not entitled to additional reimbursement.

PART VI: COMMISSION DECISION

Based upon the review of the disputed healthcare services, the Medical Review Division has determined that the requestor is not entitled to reimbursement.
